Date: 1st mar'19

Dear parents,

The National Commission for Protection of Child Right (NCPCR) has been introduced a campaign titled #ParikshaParv. This is intended to change the outlook and perspective of children towards examination and help them to combat stress, especially during board examinations.

This campaign will entail Live streaming of Q&A session with renowned experts, psychologists and counsellors through facebook/Twitter/Youtube to enable students to interact with experts to reduce the exam stress.

The details schedule of live streaming is available at
